

Growing Pacific People

Towards a Responsive Health Sector

Workforce Development Conference - 21st November 2006
Waipuna Hotel and Conference Centre, Mt Wellington, Auckland

Are you ready for the health sector of the future?

Human Resource Managers, Recruiters, Healthcare Service Managers – this conference is for you!

 Are you ready for ethnic diversity in our healthcare workforce and patient population?

 Do you want to get the best out of an ethnically diverse workforce...

 Are you a transformational leader?

 ...particularly Pacific health professionals?

Grow and sustain your Pacific Workforce

The Pacific population is estimated by Statistics New Zealand to grow by 59 percent from 260,000 in 2001 to 420,000 in 2021.

This means three things for healthcare:

- The diversity of our local communities and Pacific populations will drive demand for higher and more responsive health services
- We will need a diverse workforce to be able to respond
- We will need to develop innovative education models

It's time to gear up for this change! This one day conference will offer you practical tips and tools towards attracting, growing and managing an ethnically diverse workforce by:

- Highlighting innovative and successful education programmes that have managed to increase the supply of Pacific health professionals;
- Showcase workforce development initiatives in health that have contributed to attracting, recruiting and retaining Pacific health professionals.

Keynote Speakers:

- Dr Joan Reede, Dean for Diversity and Community Partnership, Harvard Medical School
- Professor Des Gorman, Head of School of Medicine, Auckland University Medical School
