

OH+S

DHB Occupational Health + Safety Conference

Speaker Biography

Ian Bartlett

B.Sc.(OccHyg) Dip. Occ. Hyg. RGN. MFOH

Ian Bartlett is a UK Registered Occupational Hygienist employed by Paragon Health and Safety Limited. He holds a Bachelor of Science Honours degree in Occupational Hygiene and the Diploma of Professional Competence in Occupational Hygiene awarded by the British Examining Board in Occupational Hygiene. He was formerly a Registered General Nurse (UK) and is Member of the Faculty of Occupational Hygiene (UK). Ian has worked in the field of occupational health since 1977 and moved to New Zealand in 1995.

His experience covers a wide range of occupational health and safety issues and he has a special interest in the assessment and management of hazardous substances.

Currently he is the President of the New Zealand Occupational Hygiene Society.

He is a scientific consultant with Paragon Health and Safety who specialise in the assessment and control of health and safety in the working environment.

As a relaxation from the scientific work he is a member of the performing band Westumbria and plays the Northumbrian Smallpipes, amongst other musical instruments.