

Young and unwell: What can we do?

Youth Transition Seminar

March 12, 2009

We invite you to attend this Youth Transition Seminar which is an opportunity for clinicians to present their work with young people with chronic health and to develop further skills and knowledge in working with young people who are unwell.

Venue:

Auckland University-Tamaki Campus
Cnr Morrin and Merton Rd
Glen Innes
Auckland

Cost: $85pp (Subsidies available for South Island DHB's) Lunch included

Abstracts close February 5, 2009. Registrations close February 28, 2009

For registration details and abstract forms, contact Lee-ann O'Brien 021 1542369

Email glhjob@clear.net.nz or lobrien@middlemore.co.nz

Keynote speaker

Professor Susan Sawyer is a Pediatrician by training and is the director of Centre for Adolescent Health at the Royal Children's Hospital in Melbourne. She has particular interest in models of care that best equip young people with chronic disease make a successful transition to adult life including the shift from child focused to adult centered health care. Professor Sawyer chairs the Royal Australasian Colleges of Physicians Joint Adolescent Health Committee.

Sponsored by CMDHB Youth Health Planning and Funding